The August meeting of the HRSMS was held at the home of Paul Brindza on the 8th and was attended by 11 members and guests. The meeting was called to order at 2016 by Skipper Bill Clarke. Under old business, several designs for new club stationery were submitted. Tommy Tragle showed designs featuring a bug-eye, a log canoe, and a nautical saying. Jack Bobbitt suggested a design featuring a map of Hampton Roads, while John Cheevers favored keeping the current Battle of the Ironclads design. After some discussion, it was decided to table a decision on the matter until the September meeting, in order to receive further designs. Following the discussion on stationery, Paris Aiken showed the club scrapbook, now compiled for the years 1967-1972. Following this, Tommy Tragle discussed the search for an accurate list of the club's skippers, needed for a placard to be affixed to the Skippers' Bell. The meeting was adjourned at 2105 and was followed by treats from the Brindza galley and a showing of booty from Bill Clarke's six-week naval siege of the British Isles this summer.

The September meeting of the HRSMS will be held at the home of Jim Davis, 7 Willis Court, Poquoson (868-8868) at 2000 on Friday, September 5. Members are requested to bring further designs for stationery as well as any models or nautical gear that they wish to share. Don't sweat the Bull Island mosquitoes, plan to attend this meeting.
